

Rock Dream: The vision I have for the portion of the Church God will build in, through, and upon me.

“Lord, let me have a _____.....without being a dreamer.”

Quarry: A rich _____ for obtaining _____ stone.

Stones are the rough _____ through which your rock dreams are worked into tangible _____.

- _____ rock dream needed the rough materials to produce a tangible ark.
- _____ rock dream needed the rough materials to possess the Promised Land.
- _____ rock dream needed the rough materials to produce Isaac.
- _____ rock dream needed the rough materials to produce 3,000 baptisms on the first day.

The most important and foundational cornerstone you cut from God's quarry is....._____

Oxymoron: a combination of contradictory or incongruous words

Rock dreams begin with _____ but _____.

Faith is _____ to you by God. Romans 12:3

Faith is _____ and _____ by Jesus. Hebrews 12:2

We then walk by _____ and not by _____. 2 Corinthians 5:7

We walk by the eyes of _____ and not by our physical eyes!

In Mark 10:46-52 Jesus asks a prolific question and receives a brilliant answer.

1. What do you want me to do for _____?
2. Rabbi, I _____ to _____!

Getting to Know Each Other

1. "That is a great view." What is one of the favorite views you have ever seen?
2. What is your favorite picture you have ever seen of you?

Digging Deeper into the Lesson

1. In Mark 10:46-52 Jesus and Bartemaus open our understanding to the faith/sight connection. What are some of the most common blind spots in your friends, relatives, associates, and neighbors?
2. Do you have blind spots?
3. Do you want God to give you faith to see into those blind spots?
4. Bartemaus heard Jesus say, "Go, your faith has healed you." What is the practical experience you have had with Romans 10:17?

Prayer

"Rabbi, I want to see."

1. Please state one blind spot into which you would like God to give you sight. Pray.
2. Please pray that God will give our entire congregation faith to see.
