

Toward a More Pure Decision ₁

Exodus 20

Is it possible to measure the _____ of one's decisions? In a lifetime we make millions and millions of decisions. Most decisions are so natural and common that we forget that they are actually decisions.

For a Christian, the _____ of the decision is as important as the _____ of the decision.

The Ten Commandments

Is there anything in this decision that _____ or cause me to violate the Ten Commandments?

1. Is there anything in this decision that would cause me to have another _____ before _____?
2. Is there anything in this decision that would cause me to _____, _____, or _____ an idol?
3. Is there anything in this decision that would cause others to think I had _____ the name of God?
4. Is there anything in this decision that would cause me to _____ the Sabbath or cause me to make the Sabbath _____?
5. Is there anything in this decision that would _____ my father and/or my mother?
6. Is there anything in this decision that would _____, _____, or _____ others?
7. Is there anything in this decision that would _____, _____ in, or _____ adultery?
8. Is there anything in this decision that is _____, promotes theft, or otherwise _____ what doesn't belong to you?
9. Is there anything in this decision that is _____, _____, inaccurate or that will cause me to _____ untruth, falsehoods, and inaccuracies?
10. Is there anything in this decision that is based in, caused by, or that promotes _____?